Itinerary

Day 1 - Monday, August 30: Home ➔ Quebec City, Canada (CYQB)

Welcome to Quebec City!

Air Journey will greet you at the Fairmont Le Château Frontenac. Situated in the heart of historic Old Quebec, the hotel sits high on a bluff overlooking St. Lawrence River.

All participants will meet for introductions and attend an extensive briefing covering the general procedures of our Journey as well as details for tomorrow's departure.

Afterwards, we will gather for a welcome cocktail before dinner.

Hotel: Chateau Frontenac
Welcome Cocktail and Dinner included

Day 2 - Tuesday, August 31: Quebec City (CYQB) ➔ Kuujuaq, Canada (CYVP) ➔ Kangerlussuaq, Greenland (BGSF)

690 + 725 NM

We will fly over the immense forests and numerous lakes of Canada on our way to Kuujuaq for a technical stop.

Then continue over southern Greenland's beautiful scenery before landing at Kangerlussuaq in western Greenland. The airport's Kangerlussuaq Museum illustrates the town's past as a U.S. airbase during WWII.

Because we will be approaching the Arctic Circle and the "land of the midnight sun", we will have an astonishing 20 hours of daylight!

Hotel: Hotel Kangerlussuaq
Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 3 - Wednesday, September 1: Kuujuaq, Canada (CYVP) ➔ Reykjavik, Iceland (BIRK) 730 NM

Fly to over ice-covered Greenland and then do our second water crossing.

Upon arrival, we will transfer to the Hotel Borg where we will enjoy luxury accommodations in the very center of Reykjavik. The Hotel Borg overlooks the beautiful square of Austurvöllur, and is situated across from Althing, the Icelandic parliament and the cathedral. After dinner at the hotel, you may want to venture on your own to experience the local nightlife.

Hotel: Hotel Borg
Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 4 - Thursday, September 2: Reykjavik, Iceland

Enjoy a full day of sightseeing with a visit to the famous Geysir hot spring area with numerous hot springs and geysers - one of them erupts every few minutes; take a look at the magnificent waterfall Gullfoss; visit the volcanic crater Kerid and the greenhouse village Hveragerdi; drive across Gjabakkavegur Pass to the Thingvellir National Park, a unique place of beauty, with its interesting geology and history; then cross Mosfellsheidi Heath to Reykjavik; visit the Blue Lagoon.

We will see volcanic craters, geysers, waterfalls and the national park Thingvellir, which is Iceland's national treasure and one of its most beautiful spots.

Hotel: Hotel Borg
Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included

Day 5 – Friday, September 3: Reykjavik (BIRK) ➔ Luxembourg (ELLX) 1,255 NM

Fly to Luxembourg, officially known as the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg is a small landlocked country in Western Europe. It is bordered by Belgium to the west and north, Germany to the east, and France to the south.

Upon arrival we will transfer to our Hotel that offers a heterogeneous mixture of Art Nouveau and contemporary design.

Hotel: Hotel Le Place D'Armes
Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 6 - Saturday, September 4: Luxembourg

From ancient constructions dating back to the 1500s to modern architectural marvels, the city of Luxembourg is filled with impressive buildings and is a must-visit for architecture and history. Today we will go on a half day city tour of Luxembourg. Visit the “Palais Grand-Ducal”, City Hall and the business district.

Hotel: Hotel Le Place D’Armes
Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included

Day 8 - Monday, September 6: Skiathos

Skiathos presents an ideal combination for leisure and sea sports. There are more than 60 beautiful beaches with golden sand or white pebbles; a turquoise sea to swim or sail in; today we’ll go on a half day boat tour to the neighboring islands of Skopelos and sail to the Pelion peninsula (Mainland Greece).

Hotel: Atrium Hotel
Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included

Day 7 - Sunday, September 5: Luxembourg (ELLX) → Skiathos, Greece (LGSK) 970 NM

Fly to the lush island of Skiathos.

Renowned among returning guests for offering unparalleled Greek hospitality, Atrium Hotel Skiathos is a home away from home. All accommodations are inspired by nature, seamlessly blending wooden and stone elements to create a comfortable and modern ambience.

The hotel masterfully combines style, tradition, and high-end, tailor-made service, with an emphasis on the guests’ personal needs and preferences. Its accommodations boast high-end facilities and stunning, panoramic views of the sea or the island’s idyllic natural landscape, making for an unrivalled and unforgettable Skiathos experience.

Hotel: Atrium Hotel

Day 9 – Tuesday, September 7: Skiathos

Today is a day to relax or explore on your own.

Hotel: Atrium Hotel
Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 10 - Wednesday, September 8: Skiathos, Greece (LGSK)
➔ Tbilisi, Georgia (UGTB)

990 NM

Fly to Tbilisi. Upon arrival at Tbilisi international airport this afternoon, clearing immigration and customs, the group will be met by our local guide. We will then be privately transferred to our hotel in the center of town by private luxury vehicle. Transfer to Tbilisi (30 min) and check in at the Stamba Tbilisi Hotel.

Stamba Hotel was conceived to highlight the industrial splendor of the 20th century printing house in which it is situated. Housed within historic atriums, passages and courtyards of what was once Georgia's most important printing house, Stamba Hotel is a celebration of Tbilisi's ever-evolving identity as a hotbed of talent and originality.

This afternoon we will explore the sites of this captivating city with our expert guide. Tbilisi is the capital of Georgia and the country's largest city. The city is a vibrant example of the mix of nationalities, cultures, religions, and ethnic groups found in Georgia. Tbilisi was founded in the 5th century AD by Vakhtang Gorgasali, the Georgian King of Kartli (Iberia) and made into a capital in the 6th century. Today Tbilisi is a significant industrial, social, and cultural center.

We will pass through the old quarters and the center, with its famous sulfur springs along the Mtkvari River. Traditional houses with balconies and grape vines are the backdrop to our stroll towards Narikhala, the 4th century fort overlooking the city.

The fort provides an exquisite view of the city and region.

Hotel: Stamba Hotel
Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 11 - Thursday, September 9: Visit Mtskheta – the Ancient capital of Georgia – Uplistsikhe cave town

This morning we will drive to Mtskheta – the ancient capital of Georgia. The country's conversion to Christianity occurred in Mtskheta in 337 AD and is considered one of Georgia's most important religious centers. Saint Nino erected the first Christian cross and the first churches were built here. Visit the monastery of Jvari perched on a cliff overlooking Mtskheta and continue to the Svetitskhoveli Cathedral.

Svetitskhoveli church has long been the principal Georgian church and remains one of the most venerated places of worship to this day. Continue to Château Mukhrani. The Château was established as the prince's estate of the royal Bagrationi name. In 1876, Ivane Mukhranbatoni, a royal family representative and political and public figure of 19th century Georgia returned from France with the chateau wine making concept and since then the estate's own wine-making history began.

Our wine tour will guide us to discover the Georgian royal family history and breath-taking legends, a flavor of antiquity and enchanting wines which have just won 4 prestigious Medals the 23rd Grand International Wine Award Mundus Vini - one of the most important wine competitions in the world.

After a delicious lunch accompanied by wine tasting, we will continue the drive to Gori town to visit the cave town Uplistsikhe (Fortress of the Lord) dating from the 1st millennium BC.

Hotel: Stamba Hotel

Day 18 - Thursday, September 16: Bukhara, Bukhara, Uzbekistan (UTSB) ➔ Samarkand, Uzbekistan (UTSS) 115 NM

Fly to Samarkand - one of the highlights of Uzbekistan. This small town is packed with strikingly beautiful architecture and so much history.

Upon arrival we will transfer to Emir Han hotel, positioned right on the patch of Silk Road that famously connects Samarkand and Bukhara.

Hotel: Hotel Emir Han
Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 17 - Wednesday, September 15: Bukhara

With our local guide, we will explore Bukhara's historic center. Experience a time when this ancient city was a fabled trading outpost on the Silk Road and an intellectual center for Islamic scholars. Take note of not only the impressive mosques, religious schools and shrines that represent the best of Islamic architecture, but also the careful urban planning that led to the city's UNESCO designation.

Hotel: Zargaron Plaza Hotel
Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included

Day 19 – Friday, September 17 : Samarkand

Our full day city tour begins with a visit to Registan, a central courtyard surrounded on three sides by Madrasahs. Tillya-Kori, the Sherdor Madrasa on the right and the Ulu Bey Medresesi on the left has walls covered in intricate gold. The Bibi-Khanym mosque has another great interior courtyard and is located in front of the Siab Bazaar, where you will experience the local food market.

Our tour then continues to Gur-E-Amir complex and the Shah-I-Zinda-Mausoleum another magnificent art that Samarkand has to offer.

Hotel: Hotel Emir Han
Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included

Day 20 - Saturday, September 18: Samarkand, Uzbekistan (UTSS) ➔ Mary, Turkmenistan (UTAM)

270 NM

Fly to Mary. Upon arrival, we will drive east of Mary, towards Bayram-Ali, to visit the contemporary re-incarnation and humble suburb of the glorious Ancient Marv (UNESCO World Heritage Site). One of the major archaeological sites of Central Asia, Merv played an important part in the development of the Silk Road for more than 2000 years. Within the limits of the archaeological park, which is 1200 ha, you will have a chance to observe all constituent parts of the “wandering city”.

We will then visit the 6-9th centuries AD forts of Big and Little Kyz-Kalas, excellent examples of the so-called corrugated Koshks; the splendid XII c. mausoleums of Sultan Sanjar and Muhammed ibn-Zeyd, demonstrating exquisite Seljuk period brickwork and architectural decor. If time permits, a possible visit to several more interesting spots within the site.

After sightseeing, we will head back to Mary for lunch at a local restaurant. Then visit Regional Mary Museum, presenting a wide array of archaeological finds (dating back to the 3rd mill. BC through the late 19th century) from both Ancient Merv and Bronze Age sites as well as interesting ethnographic displays reconstructing the scenes of daily life of the Turkmen population and other minorities of the Murghab oasis.

At the end of the tour, we will check-in to Mary Hotel, located in the city center. It is the largest hotel in Mary city built in 2015. The six-floor hotel has a restaurant, a gym, swimming pool, and sauna. There are tennis courts in the adjoining territory. Apart from that, guests may enjoy shopping in the souvenir and the carpet shops.

Hotel: Mary
Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included

Day 21 - Sunday, September 19: Mary, Turkmenistan (UTAM) ➔ Ashgabat, Turkmenistan (UTAA)

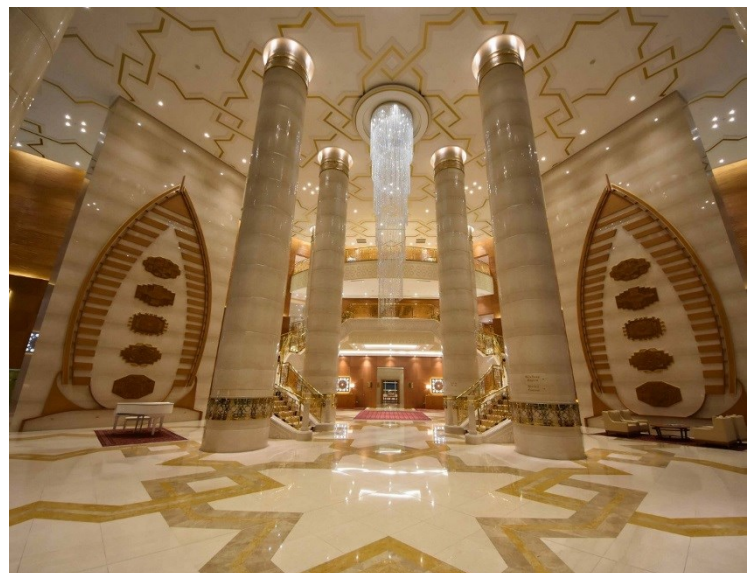

170 NM

Fly to Ashgabat. Upon arrival we will transfer to Yyldyz hotel which has the best views of the capital and the Kopetdag Mountains.

This afternoon there is an orientation tour of the city. We will see the Monument and Park of Independence (looking like a white-marble “Eiffel Tower” standing in a beautiful park) and a rocket-like Arch of Neutrality, beautiful Ertoghrul Gazie Mosque (reminiscent of the Blue Mosque in Istanbul), and the unusual “Palace of Happiness” (the official name for the Wedding Palace).

In the evening we will enjoy a folk show of traditional Turkmen music and songs, see some of Turkmen customs and rituals.

Hotel: Hotel Yyldyz
Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 22 - Monday, September 20: Ashgabat: Old Nisa and Arkadash horse farm

This morning our tour includes the World Heritage listed fortress of Old Nisa, the earliest of the Parthian Empire capitals. Located in an atmospheric area on an irregular pentagon hill, at the foot of the Kopet-Dag Mountains, Old Nisa is a beautiful landmark. Afterwards continue to the Arkadash stud farm, home of the famous Akhal-Tekke horse. The breed is one of the oldest in existence and well known for its stamina. Snacks and tea will be provided at the farm.

On the way back to Ashgabat we will stop in Kipchak, to visit the biggest mosque in Turkmenistan (called "Turkmenbashi Spirituality Mosque") and the family mausoleum of the first President.

The National Museum of History (more than 327.000 objects on a display) exhibiting exclusive ancient artefacts from different historical & archaeological sites of Turkmenistan, such as Old Nisa, Ancient Merv, Kunya-Urgench & others

Hotel: Yyldyz

Day 23 - Tuesday, September 21: Ashgabat, Turkmenistan (UTAA) ➔ Yerevan, Armenia (UDYZ)

660 NM

Fly to Yerevan, Armenia. Upon arrival we will transfer to The Alexander Luxury Collection.

Introducing an exclusive new address to the city's developing social landscape, The Alexander is heralded as the first luxury international hotel in the historic center of Yerevan. Each of the 114 non-smoking guestrooms and suites features scaled back, minimalist design, grand gold accents and hints of decorative Armenian motifs. The Alexander's collection of bars and restaurants attracts Yerevan's most discerning social scene.

After a short one hour rest, we will go for a panoramic drive of the city Yerevan, see Opera and Ballet Building, Presidential House, National Assembly, Republic Square.

Visit the Armenian Genocide Museum and Memorial. Continue to Yerevan Brandy Factory for tour and Cognac tasting. Visit the Cascade Monument and modern art galleries.

Hotel: Alexander Luxury Collection

Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 24 - Wednesday, September 22: Explore the Geghar Cave monastery and Garny Temple

This morning we will drive with our local guide to Geghard, one of the treasures of Armenia.

It is a medieval monastery in the Kotayk province of Armenia, partially carved out of the adjacent mountain, surrounded by cliffs. It is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

While the main chapel was built in 1215, the monastery complex was founded in the 4th century by Gregory the Illuminator at the site of a sacred spring inside a cave. The name commonly used for the monastery today, Geghard, or more fully Geghardavank, meaning "the Monastery of the Spear", takes its name from the spear which had wounded Jesus at the Crucifixion, allegedly brought to Armenia by Apostle Jude, called here Thaddeus, and stored amongst many other relics.

Enjoy a private Spiritual Vocal Concert arranged specially for you.

Continue to Garni, a large village in the Kotayk Province of Armenia which is known for the nearby classical temple. En route stop for lunch at a rustic local restaurant. Enjoy the local food as well as the master class of Armenian lavish bread making.

After lunch, continue to the ancient pagan temple of Garni, a classical Hellenistic temple and the best-known structure and symbol of pre-Christian Armenia. It is the only "Greco-Roman colonnaded building" in Armenia and the former Soviet Union. Enjoy traditional duduk flute by the temple.

We return back to Yerevan to visit Matenadaran Museum - The Institute of Ancient Manuscripts.

Hotel: Alexander Luxury Collection
Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included

Day 25 – Thursday, September 23: Yerevan, Armenia (UDYZ) ➔ Kayseri, Turkey (LTAU)

420 NM

Fly to Kayseri, Turkey. Upon arrival, we will transfer to the Museum Hotel in Kapakokya.

The Museum Hotel is composed from the restorations of old ruins into a luxury boutique hotel. With its unique location you can enjoy panoramic views of the major sites of the region including Avanos, Goreme, Love Valley, Pigeon Valley, Red Valley and Mt. Erciyes from all its rooms.

The hotel founder is an antique collector that has a great collection from the period of Ottoman, Seljuk, Roman, and Hittite. His vision was to allow hotel guests to experience the Cappadocian culture and let them feel the sense of a living museum.

Hotel: Museum Hotel
Breakfast and Dinner included

Day 26 – Friday, September 24: Balloon Adventure - Goreme – Kaymakli – Fairy chimneys

If the velocity of the wind is suitable today, we will have an early bird departure from the hotel for a formidable “Balloon Adventure” over the enchanting “lunar landscape” of Cappadocia, to hail the slowly rising sun, with a glass of champagne. The balloon ride over Cappadocia at sunrise is an experience of a lifetime, with all the excitement of seeing from above, the farthest “fairy chimneys” of the vast region, as a lunar landscape, only possible in one’s fantasies.

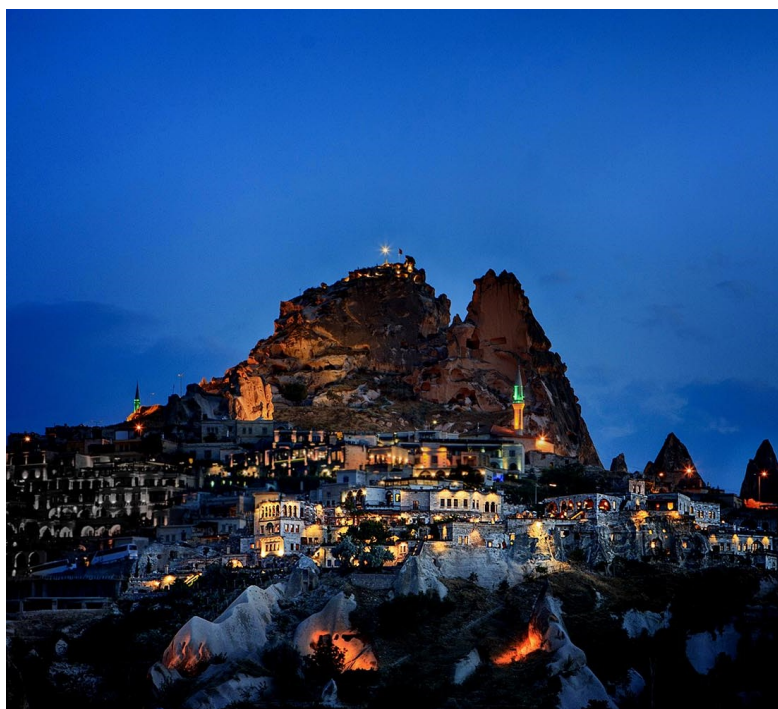

We will then return back to our hotel. After Breakfast, our tour continues to explore the most extraordinary treasures of sacred art, the rock-carved churches of Goreme, now an ‘open-air museum’. This museum hosts some of the finest examples of ninth and tenth century. What survives at Goreme and other sites scattered about Cappadocia marks out the region’s rock-cut churches and chapels as one of the greatest museums of medieval art in the world.

Next, we will visit another marvel of the region: the ‘underground city’ at Kaymakli. The enigmatic cellar villages, over 40 of which have been discovered empty, are among the wonders of Cappadocia.

After a morning of touring glorious sites in Cappadocia, we will be transferred to a specially-chosen vantage spot where, white-gloved country lunch has been arranged. Right in the midst of the Cappadocian landscape next to “fairy-chimneys”, this is truly being here!

Another cultural experience, unique to this region, is a visit to the group of young village girls from all over Cappadocia, at their “Art School”, where they happily learn to become masters of the national art of weaving Turkish carpets and kilims to be able to contribute to their traditional dowry, before they get married.
